

FULL THROTTLE NEWS

News You Can Use

March, 2009

OK, so I'm a little late with the News. My excuse is that Mr. & Mrs. Full Throttle are expecting a little brother to Garrett any day now, and we're scrambling to get everything ready. It's just like the first race weekend of the year. You know it's coming for months, but you wait until two weeks before the race to start getting the car ready. And no, it doesn't matter how many times you've done it, you still procrastinate until the very end. In any event, we've already put the baby on the waiting list for admission into the Dave Wheeler School of Race Car Detailing/Day Care Center. We're keeping our fingers crossed that he's accepted.

In the meantime, the first event of the year is upon us, and in conjunction with our friends at the Sports Car Club of Rockford, we're presenting The Blackhawk Bailout on April 18 and 19. There will be gifts for all entrants, worker goodies, and fun for all on and off the track. Be sure to say hi to Scott Tunis as you arrive at the Main Gate, and don't forget to buzz Jim Brozynski at Grid, as you leave for your track sessions. Dave Hoover will be handing out either popsicles or hot chocolate, depending on the weather, so stop him and help yourself. Of course, before you see either of them, you'll see Patti Green at Registration, so fair warning, make sure you are pre-registered, or Morgan may be instructed to attack.

UNTIL NEXT MONTH, REMEMBER, RACING IS SUPPOSED TO BE FUN!
